Dear Parent(s),

Re: Year 11 Mock Exams Starting Next Week

I am writing to remind you that our Year 11 Pre-Public Examinations (PPE) mock exams begin next week, running from Monday 9th November to Friday 20th November.

This will be a busy fortnight for our students, as many papers are squeezed into a short window. Our Year 11s have worked impressively hard over recent weeks, and we are very proud of their attitude as they prepare to demonstrate what they are capable of achieving.
To support students during this exam period, please note the following key arrangements and practical support guidelines:

School Arrangements

- Pause on Interventions & Workshops: All regular morning interventions and after-school revision workshops will be paused during these two weeks to allow students to focus fully on their exam timetable and independent revision.

- Core Subject Warm-Up Sessions (8:15am – 8:45am): Before core exams, short warm-up sessions will take place in school from 8:15am to 8:45am. We strongly encourage all students to attend promptly on these mornings:

Core Exam Warm-Up Timetable (8:15 AM – 8:45 AM)

Date	Subject Warm-Up
Monday 9th	English
Tuesday 10th	Maths
Thursday 12th	Science
Friday 13th	Maths
Tuesday 17th	English
Thursday 19th	Maths

How You Can Help at Home

- Timetables: Review your child's individual exam timetable with them and display a copy somewhere visible (such as on the fridge) so everyone knows what is coming up each day.

- Equipment: Check that your child has a clear pencil case ready each evening with all necessary equipment (black pens, pencils, ruler, compass, protractor, and a scientific calculator).

- Punctuality: Arriving at school on time each morning is essential to avoid any last-minute rush or stress before stepping into the exam hall.

Thank you, as always, for your continued support and partnership. We wish every single one of our students the very best over the fortnight ahead.

Your sincerely

Mr J Southwood
Deputy Headteacher
